DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

A Marvel to Angels and Man

Meditation:

[Souls who love Me dearly] will be a marvel to Angels and men. Their number is very small. They are a defence for the world before the justice of the Heavenly Father and a means of obtaining mercy for the world. The love and sacrifice of these souls sustain the world in existence. The infidelity of a soul specially chosen by Me wounds My Heart most painfully. Such infidelities are swords which pierce My Heart
(Diary, 367).

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, raise up yet more souls who are faithful to Your loving mercy. The world desperately needs their defence of love, their prayers, and their sacrifices. It is a marvel of Your mercy that they sustain the world in existence.

Feasts and Memorials

16 JUNE

Saint Richard of Chichester, Bishop

1197-1253. As a boy in Droitwich, Worcestershire, Richard de Wych worked on his father's farm, though he eventually went to the universities of Oxford, Paris and Bologna.

He was not ordained priest until he was 45 years old. He was appointed Bishop of Chichester two years later, but because of the king's opposition he was unable to take over the see until 1247. Meanwhile, he lived in a priest's house, visiting the parishes of his diocese on foot, and looking after an orchard.

He is remembered for his generosity to the poor, the mercy he showed to sinners, and the reform of the liturgical life of his diocese.

18 JUNE

Saint John Rigby (of Wigan), Martyr

c1570-1600. Born into a large family at Harrock Hall, Wrightington, John was an unmarried layman working as a steward for Sir Edmund Huddleston when his own recently revived faith came into question while pleading for someone else at the Old Bailey. Imprisoned, he twice refused the opportunity to recant, and was hanged. Cut down too soon, he landed on his feet, but was thrown down and disembowelled, to the dismay of those watching. He was canonised as one of the 'Forty Martyrs' in 1970, along with the Franciscan St John Jones, who had reconciled him to the faith and was executed two years earlier.

19 JUNE

Saint Romuald, Abbot

C951-1027. Born at Ravenna, northern Italy, after a carefree aristocratic youth, Romuald embraced the ascetic life of a hermit. For many years he went from place to place seeking true solitude and established the Camaldolese Order of small monasteries.

He fought against the depraved morals of many of the monks at the time and by the exercise of virtue, particularly focused on contemplation with the Psalms, he advanced along the path of perfection.

20 JUNE

Saint Alban, Martyr

C3. The first martyr of Roman Britain, Alban was probably beheaded in the persecution of Decius at Verulamium, which was renamed St Albans after his shrine. His cult was already well established by 429, when St Germanus of Auxerre visited Britain. The earliest account of his martyrdom is that of St Gildas, who wrote in the sixth century, also mentioning St Julius and St Aaron at Caerleon as protomartyrs of Britain. The later Ecclesiastical History of St Bede confirmed that Alban was a pagan soldier who gave shelter to a Christian priest and was converted by him; he then put on the priest's clothes and was arrested, tortured and executed in his place.

21 JUNE

Saint Aloysius Gonzaga, Religions

1568-1591. The eldest of a noble family of eight growing up in a castle near Mantua, Lombardy, the young Luigi was brought up piously by his mother and after receiving his first Holy Communion from St Charles Borromeo, he developed a vocation to the religious life as a missionary. He resigned his birthright of Marquis to his brother and entered the Society of Jesus at Rome. While working among the sick in a hospital and under the spiritual direction of Cardinal Robert Bellarmine, he was stricken by the plague and died in the year 1591, before being ordained. He is buried alongside St Robert in the church of Sant 'Ignazio in central Rome.

Day For Life

Sunday 15 June is this year's Day for Life and Archbishop John Sherrington is encouraging everyone from across the archdiocese to participate. The theme for this year is

'Hope does not disappoint:
Finding meaning in suffering.'

An assisted suicide bill has recently been approved in the Isle of Man (the first place within the British Isles to do so) and the Terminally Ill Adults Bill is scheduled to return to parliament on 13 June.

This Day for Life is more important than ever.

Based on the words of Carlo Acutis and Pope Francis

Jesus, You wait for me. You let yourself be found when I think there is no hope.

I need to set down the burdens of my history, my life, my sins, at Your feet, to consign to You the weight of my past.

No matter how burdensome, how complicated, how terrible, it is always possible for me to consign it all to You, my loving and merciful God, and set out anew of life's journey. You show me the sick bed can be a holy place, where charity and love turn away indifference, and gratitude nourishes hope. Suffering can make me feel exiled, cut off, but with You it is a place of encounter, a school in which I learn to love and be loved, with humility and grace.

Teach me, Lord, so that I may imitate this in my life. May the true measure of my life be shown in my relation to those sick and suffering. May I not banish suffering and those who suffer from my surroundings.

May I not exclude those who are frail and housebound. Like the Good Samaritan, may I have compassion for those who suffer so much more than me. Like Saint Carlo

Acutis Saint Therese, may I have the strength to embrace life's sufferings and offer them to You, for the Pope and the Church. Give me Your hope so that I may not fear, because with Your death and suffering comes life – eternal life; something extraordinary awaits us
