DIVINE MERCY

Taken from Saint Faustina's Diary

I Am Always with You

Meditation:

I am always in your heart; not only when you receive Me in Holy Communion, but always (Diary, 575).

Know, My daughter, that you caused Me more sorrow by not uniting yourself with Me in Holy Communion than you did by that small transgression
(Diary, 612).

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your constant presence in my heart, even when my heart is veiled with darkness. May I not grieve You by doubting that You are with me always.

NINE FIRST FRIDAYS DEVOTIONS

Next Friday, 6th June 2025,
St. Aloysius Church will be having the One hundred and Fifty-Seventh of the First Friday's in honour of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. These devotions are to beg God's infinite mercy for our world and for our Church.

*The "Great promise" associated with this devotion applied to those who went to Communion on nine consecutive First Fridays:
"I promise you, in the excess of the mercy of My Heart, that Its all-powerful love will grant to all those who shall receive Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they shall not die under My displeasure nor without receiving the Sacraments,
My Divine Heart becoming their assured refuge at that last hour."*

On 6th June, Mass at 7:30pm

All will be welcome to join us in begging the Lord for those graces promised through St. Margaret Mary to those who fulfil his directions by completing the Nine First Fridays devotion.

Prayer intentions of Pope Francis for June 2025

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus and, from his heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

DEVOTION OF THE FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS

The following is an explanation of the conditions contained in Our Lady's request regarding the Communion of Reparation on the First Saturdays of the Month.

1. Confess and receive Holy Communion

On February 15, 1926 the Child Jesus alone came to visit Sr. Lucia and asked if the devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary was being propagated. Sr. Lucia spoke of a difficulty some people have in confessing on the first Saturday, and asked if they might be allowed eight days in order to fulfil Our Lady's requests. Jesus answered: "Yes, even more time still, as long as they receive Me in the state of grace and have the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

2. 2. 2. Recite the Rosary

Five decades of the Rosary may be recited at any time or place; yet, since one will be attending Mass in order to receive Holy Communion, a very desirable time and place would be before or after Mass in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Meditation on the mysteries according to one's capacity is an essential condition for praying the Rosary. Yet, involuntary distractions do not rob the Rosary of fruit if one is doing the best he can.

3. "Keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary."

The question is often asked: Does the meditation while reciting the Rosary fulfil this condition, or is there required an additional fifteen minutes of meditation? That an additional 15 minutes of meditation is required was confirmed by Sr. Lucia of Fatima. It is clear too from a statement by the first Bishop of Fatima.

The last entry in the chronology of Fatima, published in the official Calendar of the Sanctuary for the year of 1940, and signed by Dom Jose Correia da Silva, the first Bishop of Fatima, gave a summary of Our Lady's requests concerning the Five First Saturdays.

From that official statement in the Calendar of the Sanctuary, we read the Bishop's enumeration of the various items that pertain to the devotion of the five Saturdays:

It consists in going to Confession, receiving Communion, reciting five decades of the Rosary and meditating for a quarter of an hour on the mysteries of the Rosary on the first Saturday of five consecutive months. The Confession may be made during the eight days preceding or following the first Saturday of each month, provided that Holy Communion be received in the state of grace. Should one forget to form the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, it may be formed at the next Confession, occasion to go to confession being taken at the first opportunity.

The meditation embraces one or more mysteries; it may even include all, taken together or separately, according to individual attraction or devotion; but it is preferable to meditate on one mystery each month.

Speaking of the requirement of "keeping me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary," the Bishop's comment that "it is preferable to meditate on one mystery each month" could apply only to an extra fifteen minutes, for each decade of the Rosary must have its own particular meditation. This is clear from the definition of the Rosary given in the official document of the Church on indulgences, the ENCHIRIDION OF INDULGENCES published by Pope Paul VI in 1968. It describes the Rosary as follows:

"The Rosary is a certain formula of prayer, which is made up of fifteen decades of HAIL MARYS with an OUR FATHER before each decade, and in which the recitation of each decade is accompanied by pious meditation on a particular mystery of our Redemption." (n. 48)

Like the Rosary, this meditation may be made any time or place during the first Saturday. Yet again, like the Rosary, a very fitting time and place would be in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament before or after Mass. The question has been asked: "Would an extra Rosary, which would require about fifteen minutes, fulfil this request? It would seem, if fruitfully meditated, that it would. Or again, the time could be spent reading meditatively on one of the fifteen mysteries, which is a form of mental prayer that involves reading with frequent pauses to reflect on the matter read.

4. With the intention of making reparation.

All of the conditions mentioned above - in numbers 1 to 3 - should be fulfilled with the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. On the occasion of the visit of the Child Jesus to Sr. Lucia (Feb. 16, 1926), she asked: "My Jesus, what about those who forget to make the intention?" Jesus answered: "They can do so at their next confession, taking advantage of their first opportunity to go to Confession."

The above are the minimum requirements for fulfilling the conditions of Our Lady's promise to obtain for us "at the hour of death the graces necessary for salvation." Yet, these Communions of reparation, as has been pointed out, are only a portion of the devotion of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. These few pages are meant to help bring about a frame of mind and heart that will make us aware of the need of reparation all through the month, and not just on the first Saturday.

WHY FIVE SATURDAYS?

It is sometimes asked why Our Lady asked for Communions of reparation on five first Saturdays, instead of some other number. Our Blessed Lord answered that question when He appeared to Sr. Lucia May 29, 1930. He explained that it was because of five kinds of offenses and blasphemies against the Immaculate Heart of Mary, namely: blasphemies against her Immaculate Conception, against her perpetual virginity, against the divine and spiritual maternity of Mary, blasphemies involving the rejection and dishonouring of her images, and the neglect of implanting in the hearts of children a knowledge and love of this Immaculate Mother.

25 MAY

Saint Bede the Venerable, Priest

Saint Gregory VII, Pope

Saint Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi,
Virgin

26 MAY

Saint Philip Neri, Priest

1515-1595. Born in Florence, Philip came to Rome and began to devote himself to work among the young people, while at the same time he led a Christian life and formed a brotherhood to look after the sick poor. In 1551, he became a priest and formed the Oratory as a society of secular clergy for spiritual renewal and pastoral care, holding services consisting of spiritual readings and hymns as well as performing charitable works. He was outstanding for his love of his neighbour, an evangelical simplicity and joyfulness in the service of God.

27 MAY

Saint Augustine of Canterbury, Bishop, Apostle of England c6-7. Born in Italy, as prior of the monastery of St Andrew at Rome he was sent by Pope Gregory the Great in the year 597 with 30 monks to preach the Gospel in England, arriving at Ebbsfleet on the Isle of Thanet. His mission was helped by King Ethelbert, and he became the first Archbishop of Canterbury, also establishing the dioceses of Rochester and London, where the faith rapidly spread, and many were converted from paganism. He died on 26 May 604.

29 MAY

Saint Paul VI Pope

1897-1978. Born Giovanni Battista Montini at Concesio, Brescia, after ordination in 1920 he spent many years in the service of the Holy See. While Archbishop of Milan, he was elected pope in 1963. He brought to a successful conclusion the Second Vatican Council, which was then in progress, implementing its teachings on ecclesial life, liturgy, ecumenical dialogue and spreading the message of the Gospel in the modern world. He was canonised by Pope Francis in 2018.

30 MAY

Blessed Lawrence Richardson (of Crosby), Priest and Martyr

C16. Born Lawrence Johnson in Great Crosby, became a fellow of Brasenose College, Oxford, before training for priesthood at Douai and changing his name to Richardson. He managed to operate in his native Lancashire from 1577, notably around Charnock Richard, but was arrested and imprisoned at Newgate in 1581. When offered a pardon if he would admit to being part of a plot against Queen Elizabeth I, he said, 'I cannot confess an untruth; neither can I deny my faith.' He became one of the 105 martyrs of Tyburn and was beatified by Pope Leo XIII in 1886.

The Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

This feast is of medieval origin and commemorates the visit of Mary, then pregnant with Jesus, to her cousin Elisabeth, pregnant with John the Baptist, as recorded in the Gospel of Luke. When greeted by her young cousin, Elizabeth exclaimed 'Blessed art thou among women,' extending the archangel's greeting 'Hail Mary,' at the Annunciation. Our Lady's response is the great 'Magnificat' prayer, celebrating God's mercy and justice. The joy of sharing Christ's presence invites a response of serving others with love and humility, inspired by Mary's example

ASCENSION THURSDAY

29th May 2025

O Lord, your ascension into Heaven marks the culmination of the Paschal Mystery, and it contains an important teaching for us. May we live life as an earthly reality and develop our human potential to the fullest. May we make use of the results of science to achieve a better life on this planet. But in our best moments we know that there must be more than all of this: a transcending reality. As Christians, we know that this reality is your loving Father who awaits us with you and the Holy Spirit. Where you have gone, we ultimately will come - if we are faithful.

Masses for this Holy Day of Obligation are:

Thursday 29th May

'The Spiritans'*

(Holy Ghost Fathers) will be making their annual Mission Appeal in the Diocese of Liverpool during this year 2025.

The Spiritans Ministry

The Spiritans were founded in 1703 by Fr. Poullart des Places in Paris in response to witnessing child labour and students who could not afford to pay educational fees. Since this time, the Spiritans has grown into a worldwide movement, operating in more than 60 countries and preaching the Gospel of peace and justice. We stand alongside the powerless in society to work with them for a better world through education, health, development and tolerance. At home, we work with people seeking refuge or asylum, people suffering from drug and alcohol abuse, prisoners and those who feel abandoned by society. We remain faithful to the vision of Christ and go beyond national boundaries to reach people of all colour, creed and class.

Mission Appeal will take place in our two parishes on the weekend of 2nd/3rd August 2025
